According to press accounts, a criminal court of appeals has sustained the preventive detention of ex-bankworker leaders Juan Francisco Esquerria and Omar Amilcar Esposito, but reduced somewhat the amounts of their personal assets blocked by the examining magistrate in the preliminary procedure and it also allowed Esposito out on bail. The appeals court denied bail to Esquerria, however. It also left standing the previous decision of the examining magistrate not to grant bail to either Carlos Colazo or Anubis Rovella, inasmuch as no appeal
